

Dr.K.V.L.Raju is a graduate in Mechanical Engineering, Post Graduate in Industrial Engineering and Ph.D in Mechanical Engineering. Dr.Raju has 29 years of teaching experience, of which

- 8 ½ years with GITAM College of Engineering, Visakhapatnam.
- 5 ½ years with Sir C.R.Reddy College of Engineering, Eluru and
- Presently working as Professor of Mechanical Engineering and Principal since the last 20 years in Maharaj Vijayaram Gajapathi Raj College of Engineering, Vizianagaram i.e., right from its inception.
- Dr.Raju is a passionate teacher, guided and trained students over the years in the courses like Engineering Mechanics, Engineering Graphics, Mechanics of Solids, Theory of Machines, Design of Machine Elements, Production Planning and Control, Industrial Engineering and Operations Research.
- His research interests include facility location, industrial facility layout etc.
- Dr.Raju has to his credit 12 publications / presentations.
- Andhra University conferred best thesis award and a Gold Medal on Dr.Raju for his thesis.
- Also, Dr.Raju guided research leading to award of Ph.D in Mechanical Engineering - two research scholars are working under him - one of the two was awarded Ph.D.
- Dr.Raju is instrumental in the development and contributed to the growth of Maharaj Vijayaram Gajapathi Raj College of Engineering from its inception i.e., the last 20 years through his active and enthusiastic participation in its academic planning, administration in addition to his contributions in the development of its infrastructure and amenities.

Dr.Raju has successfully lead MVGR College of Engineering for its accreditation both by NBA for all its eligible programs and Grade 'A' certification from NAAC of UGC.